

The Parish Church of St Thomas of Canterbury Brentwood

Assistant Director of Music
and Director of the Girls' Choir
Job Description

 Music at St Thomas'

Assistant Director of Music

Job Summary

The Assistant Director of Music (ADoM) is an exciting new post which replaces what has traditionally been the position of 'Assistant Organist'. The ADoM will play the organ at most services, support the Vicar, assist with choir training, and assist the Director of Music (DoM) in the administration of the busy music department. The balance of organ-playing and choir-training/conducting can be determined by agreement with the DoM. The opportunity to direct the Girls' Choir is open for the right candidate (see Appendix A).

Fees

Payment of the duties carried out will be in the region of £5,000 - £7,000 per annum, dependant on experience and support offered. Fees are subject to a review annually by the PCC. In addition, the ADoM can expect a substantial share of fees for weddings and funerals, as agreed with the Vicar and DoM. The ADoM may use the organ and piano for teaching and recording, when available and by agreement with the Vicar. The post-holder is responsible for their own accommodation costs.

Background

Music plays an important part in the worship and life of the Parish Church of St Thomas of Canterbury, a church in the Anglo-Catholic tradition set in the centre of Brentwood, in the diocese of Chelmsford.

Music at St Thomas'

- The successful applicant will be expected to work closely with the Vicar and DoM to support a vibrant music department which includes close to 100 volunteer musicians.
- There are five choirs - Boys' Choir, Girls' Choir, Men's Choir, Becket Singers (an adult chamber choir) and the Becket Consort of Voices (a young adult 'students' choir) - the Orchestra of St Thomas', an Organ Scholarship scheme (currently with 2 teenage scholars) and monthly Lunchtime Concerts in the summer months. The Great Choir (when all choirs sing together) perform on special occasions.
- We are in the process of establishing a choir/music support committee and we are keen to further develop the musical provision at the church.
- The schedule of Choral services is shown on Appendix B.
- The fine 3-manual/41 speaking stops organ was renovated and upgraded by Nicholsons in 2011. Free use of the organ for practice and for teaching will be offered.
Refer to Appendix C for the organ specification.
- There is a music website: www.music-at-st-thomas.org.uk.
- St Thomas' Church is affiliated to the Royal School of Church Music (RSCM) and the Brentwood Arts Council.

Personnel

Sam Adams	Director of Music since 2012

Brian Lynn	Director of the Orchestra of St Thomas'
Daniel Carter	Organ Scholar and Librarian
Alex Evans	Organ Scholar

There are an additional four organists who deputise from time to time.

Duties and Responsibilities

The Assistant Director of Music supports the Vicar and is accountable to the Director of Music for the following:

- Playing the organ to a high standard for services, including accompanying the choir as required. There is some flexibility to allow the Assistant Director of Music and Director of Music to swap conducting and playing responsibilities by mutual agreement.
- Liaising with the other organists and managing the provision of organ music for all services in the church.
- Playing for a share of non-choral services during choir holidays.
- Deputising for the Director of Music as required.
- Assisting with the recruitment of young people to the choirs.
- Assisting with training and conducting the choirs, as required by the Director of Music.
- Assisting with preparing candidates for the RSCM awards.
- The Girls' Choir has traditionally been directed by the Assistant Organist, but consideration may be given to including this role within the ADoM's duties with the fee paid reflecting this additional responsibility. Please see Appendix A for Job Description for 'Director of the Girls' Choir'.
- Assisting the Director of Music and choir assistants in the administration of the department, including music library, production of printed materials, and similar tasks.
- Developing and delivering appropriate training plans for the Organ Scholar(s). There is an additional fee for one-to-one lessons working towards ABRSM grades.
- Assisting others in running the lunchtime recital series, including meeting visiting musicians and acting as front-of-house for recitals (as required).
- Coordinating the planning and presentation of organ recitals in the church and establishing an annual series.
- Assisting with the musical arrangements for special services such as weddings and funerals.
- The Assistant Director of Music is also encouraged to be involved in choir trips (including summer residential visits).
- Attending meetings as required.
- Other duties as directed by the Director of Music.
